

Project Advisory Team Members: Brief Biographies
High Point Community Center Addition

Name	Affiliation
Jennifer Annable	Jennifer is a member of the High Point Community Center Advisory Council and an area resident. Jennifer works as a principal for a University of Washington school for educators.
Deanna Armour	Deanna works as a youth and family services program developer for the High Point Neighborhood Health Center, a service provider at the SHA High Point community. Deanna is familiar with the needs of youth and families at High Point. Deanna also lives in the neighborhood.
Lee Dietrick	Lee is a long time High Point Community Center Advisory Council member.
David de la Fuente	David is Branch Director of the High Point YMCA. He has strong connections with youth and families at High Point. He is currently working with SHA to provide input on the needs and hopes of service providers during the SHA Hope VI redevelopment. David also collaborates with the community on many events and programs each year.
Wendy Gallart	Wendy works in the Hope VI Community & Supportive Services office at Seattle Housing Authority and is a key staff person working with the community on the redevelopment.
Ron Jenkins	Ron is the President of the High Point Community Center Advisory Council. Formerly, Ron was the Branch Director at High Point YMCA. Ron also served as the Director of Youth for Fair Chance that provided programs for people between ages 14 and 29, ranging from sports to job development.
Sorya Svy	Sorya is the Executive Director, Safe Futures Youth Center. Safe Future works with area teens to provide alternatives to gangs. Safe Future currently collaborates with the Community Center to offer evening basketball programs.
Vacant	Sunrise Heights Community Council. Sunrise Heights is the closest community organization.
Elizabeth Stubblefield	Elizabeth is an active community member and past High Point Community Center Advisory Council member.
Vacant	High Point Community Council
Vacant	Morgan Community Council

Mike Brady	Former High Point Community Center Coordinator
Ken Davis	Acting High Point Community Center Coordinator
Katie Gray	SW Sector Parks and Recreation Manager